Easter Prayer

Praise be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for your mercy is without limits; for you are alive and with us, calling each of us by name. Enable us to listen to your call as we rejoice in your resurrection. Lead us to follow in your footsteps, no longer centered on ourselves, but open to others. We ask this in your name, for our good and for your glory. Amen.

OUR VISION IS:

OUR MISSION IS:

To invite and welcome people of all ages, backgrounds and walks of life to embrace and celebrate our vocation: to be Christ to the world.

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

Alleluia!

A blessed Easter to you! On this great feast, all believers can celebrate together the greatest victory of all history, victory over humanity's greatest fear, our greatest adversary - death itself. And in his sharing of the Resurrection with all believers, Jesus reaches out to you and me today and invites us to rejoice and to see his loving hand extended to you and to me in a gesture of friendship and love.

In this feast, we reach the joyous culmination of forty days of accompanying Jesus as he moved resolutely toward a moment that History will never forget, and I hope none of us does either! These last three days, believers like you and me have walked as closely as we can to Jesus as he underwent unspeakable suffering, rejection and death. Countless believers who are struggling to keep going recognize their own struggles in those of Jesus, and, of course, this is exactly what he did all of this for.

Worshipping in church with you and me today are fellow human beings who are dealing - often silently - with deep concerns. A single mom worries how she will make ends meet and provide for her children. A middle-aged man recently learned that he has cancer. A young person wonders if he will ever find a person who will love him and with whom he can begin a family. So many of us have been confused or perturbed by shouted political and ideological slogans that all we feel is frustration. There are constant messages and temptations for us all to leave God out of our lives.

God's answer was to come to accompany us, and beyond that, to be with us always and to share not only our real challenges and sufferings, but to share freedom with us and to give us a community of sisters and brothers who really do understand our struggles because they have struggles, too. Together we live our lives, accompanying each other and always with Jesus living among us. This is good news indeed! I'm glad we share it together.

This particular community, Saint Kateri Parish, is celebrating five years as a parish. In fact, in 50 days, Pentecost weekend, we will have a great celebration to cap off the year. In the meantime, several of us (yes, I'll be part of it!) wish to make an unusual and holy pilgrimage to the birthplace of Saint Kateri Tekakwitha, in Fonda, New York, and we're going by bike on a 4-day, 200-mile pilgrimage. For those whose time does not allow for something like this, I've asked our staff to plan some walking pilgrimages from our Irondequoit home to the Cathedral of Rochester, to pass through the Holy Door in this Jubilee Year of Mercy.

This summer, so many good things will "heat up," including Kidz Camp for the little ones, offerings for younger Catholics and a special, kind of an exciting new offering called Alpha, especially geared for young adults. Always look at our bulletin for all of the amazing things our parish offers! We'll have an exciting raffle in the months ahead, so keep an eye out.

One of our own, you may remember from her participation in Music Ministry at the Christ the King Church, Abby Celso, has gained national fame by being selected to continue on The Voice!

New life in Christ Jesus! Amazing possibilities! Help for those in need. This is our Easter joy. May joy be yours today and every day.

Easter blessings,

Fr. Paul F. English, CSB, Pastor

Iditarod 2016

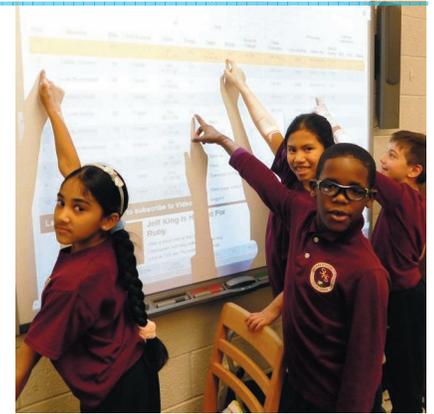

by Sr. Pat McDermott with Ms. Gail Michaels

Third Graders at Saint Kateri School are "virtually" trekking to Nome, Alaska this semester as they study the Iditarod, the annual 1,172 mile dog sled race.

The class adventure began by reading the classic novel Black Star, Bright Dawn, by Scott O'Del, the story of a young Eskimo girl who takes her father's place in the Iditarod. Next the class learned about Balto, the well-known lead dog that led the team to Nome to deliver serum for a diphtheria outbreak to save the village in 1929.

To prepare for the "virtual" 2016 race, students randomly drew a team of three mushers. Names were chosen for each dog, dog bowls colored and dog houses decorated with glyphs that tell about us. Interestingly this year, Noah Pereira from Brockport, NY – the youngest racer – is running in his first Iditarod. Every day, back in Irondequoit, the class is tracking the mushers' places, number of dogs still running on each team, the total distance traveled, distances between checkpoints, plotting the last checkpoint, checking how long the musher rested at the checkpoint, and tracking the weather conditions along the way.

Did you know that the dogs wear booties to protect their feet? How many booties do you think are needed for fourteen dogs to travel 1,172 miles? During this unit on the race, the Third Graders learned a lot more than they thought covering English Language Arts, Math, Social Studies, Science and even Religion.
