Easter Prayer

Praise be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for your mercy is without limits; for you are alive and with us, calling each of us by name. Enable us to listen to your call as we rejoice in your resurrection. Lead us to follow in your footsteps, no longer centered on ourselves, but open to others. We ask this in your name, for our good and for your glory. Amen.

*In a time of great need,
your mercy is touching hearts.*

to you all who were so involved in making this year's Lenten Food Program so successful. We are very pleased to report that Saint Kateri was able to deliver 16 carloads of donations, a 30% increase from last year, to St Andrew's, Sister Regis, Irondequoit Community Cupboard, and La Casa Transitional Housing. The many hands in storing, transporting, and delivering these items, along with the collaboration from everyone in the parish, were superb. You all have our sincerest gratitude and will remain in our thoughts and prayers. Warmest regards,

Carol & Mike Ratigan

Boy Scout Troup 233

Boy Scout Troop 233 sends a sincere THANK YOU to Saint Kateri parishioners for their support of our Lenten Baked Fish Dinners. The proceeds from the fish dinners provide the means for Scouts to earn merit badges, achieve advancement, participate in Troop campouts, District campouts, High Adventure Camps – have fun and prepare for life. Thank you for your continued support! Hope to see you next year!

Scouts, Leaders and families of Boy Scout Troop 233

La Casa Transitional Housing

On behalf of Catholic Charities of Wayne County, I would like to thank our cherished friends from Saint Kateri for two generous food donations delivered by Mike and Carol Ratigan in March 2016. The thoughtfulness and caring by the parishioners of Saint Kateri toward food-insecure individuals and families is greatly appreciated. The food will be shared between La Casa, our transitional housing for farmworkers, as well as the Newark Food Closet, with which we work closely. All the items provided are very much welcomed. We are grateful that you considered Catholic Charities of Wayne County to receive your food donations, and that Mike and Carol were so kind to deliver. We are most grateful for the kind generosity! Peace and Grace,

Deacon Peter S. Dohr, Exec. Director

Lenten Food Collection

At the risk of overlooking anyone, and before too much time slips away, we would like to extend our deep appreciation

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

Do You Love Me?

The question Jesus asks Simon Peter in this weekend's Gospel can bring a number of different responses, depending on whether someone is asking you or asking somebody else. On the lake shore two thousand years ago, Jesus was asking someone else if he, Peter, loved him. Interesting situation. We know the background all too well. Peter, who bravely promised never to turn his back on him, actually denied three times that he even knew Jesus when things went so badly. Peter got to know a different side of himself than he had ever known existed – the side that can be so wrong; it pains him. We can only imagine the guilt he must feel as he and his boat mates return to the north to leave things behind and be fishermen again. He must have hated the coward he was, both because he abandoned the Lord he loved and because his ideal of himself was now shattered on the dusty ground.

So Jesus, resurrected and very much alive, questions Simon Peter, "Do you love me more than these?" and we, like spectators at a show we've seen many times before but find deeply satisfying each time we see it, witness Peter's reply, with such relief and gratitude saying yes, "you know I love you." A simple exchange but filled with such emotion and healing. And it repeats twice more, each time with Jesus commissioning Peter to make a difference in the lives of others.

So that's somebody out there asking another somebody out there, "Do you love me?" Interesting, though safe for us who are observing. Have you ever heard a young couple talking when one of them asks this question of the other? It might indicate that there's some doubt there, that the relationship is getting rocky or maybe that one definitely loves the other but is unsure if it is reciprocated! In any event, it becomes very personal and very delicate, doesn't it?

Now, however, in this season of the Resurrection, Jesus turns from that safe page somehow, looks you, looks me in the eye and asks, "Do you love me?" If we give it some thought, we would say that we have had our moments of loving Him, especially in our families and in special people who bring his love into sharp focus by their kindness, love and peace. We may love Him in the beauty of what He created: the warm sun, the beauty of flowers, the taste of excellent food and drink, the miracle of music, the harmony of the seasons...

While Jesus is assuredly in our lives this way, He's also equally present in the people we decidedly do not find pleasant or attractive. He is in the situations about our world where pain and suffering predominate. He is where we would not usually spend much time because it's dangerous or distasteful. He doesn't ask if we are simply able to love him there; he's asking us, "Do you love me there?" Making an active difference in their lives?

*Challenged in the love of the Risen Christ,
Fr. Paul F. English, CSB, Pastor*

This course examines the development of this uniquely Christian ritual meal of the Eucharist tracing its roots from the earliest biblical record through its late antique, medieval and modern forms. We will also explore the varied Eucharistic theologies and liturgical expressions evident in contemporary Christian communions today, but special attention will be paid to the theological and historical dimensions connected with Eucharistic practice as evidenced in the Roman Catholic Mass.

SACRAMENTS OF THE CHURCH

Sacrament of Baptism - Baptizing a young child is a beautiful moment in the life of a family. Parishioners wishing to do so participate in Baptism preparation. To register for preparation and to schedule a baptism, please call the parish office.

Anointing of the Sick - Please call the parish office or see a priest after Mass.

PARISH SUPPORT Thank you for contributing to Saint Kateri Parish. The strength of our parish community is a direct result of your commitment. May we thank God from whom all blessings flow.
