PASTOR'S REFLECTION

More Than A Feeling

I hope people around my age will forgive me for putting a song into your head that won't go away for a few hours or days!

You may have noticed that there are hundreds and hundreds of songs in every era about love. People seem to take to song and poetry to confess their deep love for the person they just know will fulfill them, the one they've hoped for all their life, their

"other self!" Believe me when I tell you that I know how that feels. In fact, I've felt that way a few times in my 60 years (no, attraction doesn't end when a man is ordained). Just thinking about that person is enough to make the darkest day bright, and to catch a glimpse is brilliant! You know what I mean!

Romantic love is quite powerful, isn't it? It is capable of moving us to do things we didn't know we could even do! But this is far from the only kind of love there is. Think of how a mom and dad feel about their child. Or how grandparents feel about their grandkids. Amazing! Then there's the kind of love we have for our good friends, for our school, for our country. Again, these are so strong and can motivate us to go beyond our comfortable lives to do great things.

All of these have something in common. You can see and touch the object of your affection. Just hearing their voice is enough to make the darkest day bright. A picture or a memento of them brings back deep affection. And we sorely miss them when they're gone. All of these amazing types of love have a hidden origin in the Source of Love: our loving Father God. In fact, God was so hopelessly in love with the human family - who had turned our back on his love when all He ever wanted was to be our Father and we his beloved children - that He became visible, touchable, in the person of Jesus. Then we finally would see God's love in the flesh, hear God's loving voice tell us how much He loves us, and live in the joy and security of that love forever. As you know, Jesus did powerful signs so that we might believe that he is, in fact, God in the flesh. And he even endured a terrible death in order to save you and me from meaninglessness, to give us hope and a peace the world cannot give.

It's that love that captivates me. It has since I was a teenager. I love Jesus deeply and I know he loves me even more. And because of this, I want to be like him as best I can. He helps me to see that while the amazing things of this world are truly beautiful, sharing his love with others, as he does with me, is even more beautiful. Doing so somehow touches our very center where we live and helps us understand that we are more than our earthbound existence. We are loved eternally. I want to help people experience this!

Love, you see, is so much more than a feeling. It's knowing that you are from love and that love is your destination, and that it is best when shared in concrete ways. It starts with Jesus. If we can show God's love to others each day through actions based on this love, as He did, we will be his true and highly-esteemed followers. Disciples!

*Wishing you love this day,
Fr. Paul F. English, CSB, Pastor*

Many Thanks and Blessings!

Saint Kateri Parish is a truly blessed community! One of the pillars of our parish since its inception is the Irondequoit Senior Ministries, serving senior members of the Irondequoit community since 2002. It is a cooperative venture between our parish and the Saint

Ann Community, and provides a variety of services, both religious and social, with the participation of wonderful volunteers and a director who is a Saint Kateri staff member. In recent years, that director has been Mrs. Pat Gambacurta, an Irondequoit resident herself, who has taken to her ISM work with great enthusiasm, joy and creativity. Pat and her husband Bill have been given the opportunity to live in Florida and have decided to accept this offer, starting May 1. While we are delighted for Pat and Bill and their good fortune, we will surely miss Pat’s gifts and amazing style. Irondequoit Senior Ministries will continue under new directorship. Pat and Bill, you go with our deep affection, gratitude and friendship. We know that you will visit (when it gets too hot) and ask only that you keep in touch, and keep Saint Kateri in your prayers. God bless you!.

Easter Prayer

Praise be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, for your mercy is without limits; for you are alive and with us, calling each of us by name. Enable us to listen to your call as we rejoice in your resurrection. Lead us to follow in your footsteps, no longer centered on ourselves, but open to others. We ask this in your name, for our good and for your glory. Amen.
