PASTOR'S REFLECTION

We Are Truly Blessed

This week, the United States celebrates its 240th birthday. With the separation from the rule of the King of England, a new country was born. I can only imagine what it must have been like for the new citizens. There were no established customs, few laws or rules. All that had to be accomplished after the first instance of independence and establishment as a nation. At that time, the citizens had no ambitions to be a great power in the world. They were trying to make this "new thing" work and hoping they would make it to 1777!

In those days, as in ours, they were blessed with a land filled with abundant natural resources, plenty of water and a spirit of unity of purpose that aided them in finding a way to create a new country as they went along.

A lot has been made lately of the religious influence in the new-born United States. People had come from a Christian Europe, but in many places, the leaders of the Church and the civil leaders had such a dominance of the economy and the laws that it was difficult to distinguish between them. In the eyes of the founders of this country, no religious body should be established as the de facto government. America would be a nation that welcomed and honored the diversity of faiths and religious practices, and no one religion would dominate the making of the law of the land. In the Constitution, that's what is referred to as the "establishment clause," requiring the separation of Church and State. In particular, they did not want this country to be what England had become.

PARISH NEWS

At the same time, faith and religious gatherings and communities were all very much honored and recognized as vital to the health of a nation. Faith in God and action based on that faith helps a people remain humble before the Creator, happy to seek justice, to maintain peace, to be guided by "our better angels." People truly honoring God in any nation bring conscience and honor to the workings of that nation.

This Independence Day, let us be thankful for the legacy we have been given, both as citizens of this country and as free Catholic Christians, with a faith whose influence in the country and in the world can be for such great good. And as we are giving thanks, let us all commit to double our efforts to know Christ more fully, to practice his lifestyle, to influence a world that truly needs his love and his peace.

*Your brother in Christ,
Fr. Paul F. English, CSB, Pastor*

ISM Communion Ministry Volunteers

Have you considered reaching out to the growing number of people in our local senior facilities? We have heard in recent Gospel readings; Jesus has challenged all of us to find what more we can do for the greater community. He dares us to let go and become servants to all. ISM Communion Ministry is needing volunteers who have 1 hour a month to assist as a Communion Service minister at any of the eight local facilities. Information, training, support and supplies are available.
