Saint Kateri, Pray for Us.*

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

Springs of Living Water

When you go on a pilgrimage, the promise is that you will have a profound spiritual experience. I know that's true, especially since I joined eleven others on the bicycle pilgrimage to Saint Kateri Tekakwitha's birthplace in Fonda, New York at the end of May. What I didn't know at the time was that the experience itself would be so challenging, so strenuous that it would not be apparent exactly what I was learning or going through spiritually. I was very aware of a few things:

I hurt. Yes, riding a bike for five hours or more a day has some pain involved. I also was riding in that "hunched forward" posture, so my shoulders and neck felt every bump and my wrists and forearms felt great fatigue. When I felt the hurt, though, I prayed -- and specifically for Avrie Sinesieu, a lovely 9-year old parishioner who has, for the fourth time, been diagnosed with leukemia. So I asked the Lord and I asked Saint Kateri to remember Avrie with mercy. I prayed so repeatedly that I began to feel like I was "nagging" them, but realized that this is exactly what the prayer of petition is about!

I'm in better shape than I have been in years. Without that, I pretty much know I wouldn't have made it. In fact, I wouldn't have tried! But I thank God for the gift of being able to work out at the gym twice a week for the last year with a trainer who works me very hard. Some gifts, you realize, were given long before you knew they were needed! Conti. on pg. 2

Emerging Churches

Your donation this weekend supports Catholic organizations that provide affordable shelter and training for seminarians in a region that still struggles from the effects of Soviet rule. By providing pastoral care, catechesis, and funding for building renovations, your donations help restore the Church and build the future in the region. Fun at the End-of-the- School Year Field Day

Fifty miles is a long way! We rode that each day, starting at 7 am to avoid the heat of the day (at least in theory). On the airplane, it's a blink of an eye. In the car, it's less than an hour. On a bike, it seems like all day!

Saint Kateri grew up in beautiful country. They found some lovely land on which the entire community lived, and that land included a lovely, natural spring which provided water for the people of their community. We actually brought a gallon of Lake Ontario water to mix in the spring and then refilled our jug with a gallon of Kateri's spring water and brought it home to the parish for use in special occasions, for baptisms and blessings, etc. Kateri's people depended very much on God for what they needed to eat, to wear, to keep them warm. So do we, of course. We just forget quite often to look behind the package or the store where we purchase things. It's God. Believe me!

On those long, sometimes really hot days as the miles and the hours rolled by, I realize now that I was never on my own. Not only were the other 11 somewhere on the trail, but Jesus, whom I've loved for so many years, was right with me, encouraging me, commiserating with my pains, reminding me of the holy purpose of our pilgrimage and hearing me ask for mercy for the world, for you whom I love and for Avrie (never forget to pray for Avrie).

People have asked if I'd do it again. For a week or so when my thighs were as hard as stone, I would have said no. Now I'm not so sure. It was such a spiritual blessing. Something in me is changed -- sharper spiritually. So now I say, "we'll see..." Funny, isn't it? You go through something really hard and you end up somehow stronger and more ready to take the next challenge.

Blessings this week when we celebrate our patroness, Saint Kateri Tekakwitha!

Fr. Paul F. English, CSB, Pastor

Consider a stop for a short visit at the Kateri Tekakwitha National Shrine in Fonda, NY, outside of Albany. What a gift to have access to the sacred ground of our beloved patroness so close to home.
