PASTOR'S REFLECTION

All In The Family

I finished reading a fascinating book this month. In it I read some thought-provoking statistics from a poll of Catholics a few years ago, about what Catholics believe, how they relate to God, their prayer and worship. It was done by an organization called CARA. So I looked into the research to learn more about how “typical Catholics” think and feel about their Catholicism. It’s helpful for us all to know how our sisters and brothers look upon our common faith.

It turns out there is a variety of news, some of it troubling but some really encouraging. When asked if they believe in God, 91% said they do strongly or are fairly certain. And 90% said strongly or fairly so that religion was important in their life. 59% of those polled said they pray daily.

Other related research has recently coined a new term: “the nones.” These are people who, when asked what religion or denomination they are a part of, answer “none.” It is a large and growing number. Yet, among even this group, 65% believe in God, many go to church somewhat frequently and a not-small proportion of them are Catholic by baptism. Most of them express a deep spiritual desire and interest. These are our sisters and brothers.

According to the research, when it comes to religious education, bible study, etc., only 17% of the Catholics polled participated once a week while 63% seldom or never do. Similar numbers were associated with reading the Bible weekly: 25%, and 52%. However 85% believe in Heaven, ‘though only 63% in Hell. 91% of those who attend Mass weekly or more often believe that Jesus Christ is really present in the bread and wine of the Eucharist. Those attending monthly: 65%, and only a few times a year: 40%.

In our ancient faith, we hold as central the truth that Jesus Christ is truly God while also truly human. We believe that out of deep, loving concern for us human beings, he became one of us, to help us be free from slavery to evil and enjoy the goodness of life in him. That he died out of that same love for us and resurrected to live forever – and that he shares these gifts with all who will but believe.

He provides us with the best food for our journey: his own Body and Blood in the Holy Eucharist – not just as a symbol, but truly Jesus, body and blood, soul and divinity to take into our bodies as part of our own life – and this miraculous food is free!

Our Catholic faith is ancient, God’s expression of love for you, for me. God so desperately wants to share love with us. Although we cannot see God, signs of his love and care are all around for us to perceive. The blessed Food he gives us for our life journey is God’s greatest gift. I pray for all of us that we can experience Christ’s love and support each other’s faith!

*Summer blessings,
Fr. Paul F. English, CSB, Pastor*

Legion of Mary

By Jan Caretta

I want to share with you a particular devotion. Mary is the center of this devotion. It is through Mary that our salvation came into this world and taught us how to live and love. It is also through Mary that we go back to Jesus – back with our troubles and wants, but also with our good works and prayers. Through this transfer, if you will, our works and prayers take on new meaning. They are amplified – just because they are being given to Jesus through the hands of His most Blessed Mother.

My name is Janice Caretta and I am a member of the Legion of Mary. I have been associated with the Legion for several years now and have not regretted one moment spent under Mary’s care. I have found that a small gesture on one’s part can have a big impact on another’s life. It is amazing how God and Mary work through you if you give them a chance. Don’t miss this opportunity to do good and share in all the graces that Mary can shower down on you. All these things are important to Mary as we care for her children. We on earth have short memories at times, but not so in heaven. As Jesus said, “ Whatsoever you do to the least of my brethren, you do to me.” So, what may be insignificant to us amounts to something of great value in heaven.

Before you close your mind and heart to the possibility of joining the Legion of Mary, please ask yourself if, just maybe, Mary and her Son are asking you to give of yourself just this little bit and then offer to both of them your gift of love.

THANK YOU

Dear Friends of Saint Kateri,

Many thanks for your wonderful generosity this summer. Your gifts of food are so welcome and appreciated. We have also met some of your gracious parishioners as new volunteers this month and we are so happy to include them in our talented staff. Your parish has truly partnered with us. With friends like you, we can readily meet the challenges of the mission before us, knowing that our faith community supports and encourages our efforts.
