PASTOR'S REFLECTION

Hope In A Time Of Confusion

What challenging times we live in! So many shocking things in the last few months. People ask what it all means and sincerely wonder where the world is headed. The troubling list of violent atrocities weighs heavily on our hearts.

In our country we are in the midst of a particularly contentious political season, often punctuated by heated and even violent rhetoric. Just when we as a people really need to band together and find solutions to the problems that assail us all, we instead fashion ever-new reasons to distrust, malign and despise those whose preference for leadership doesn't match ours!

Division is the work of the devil, whose prime tool for dividing good people is deception, lies. God assures us Catholics that truth, certainties and clarity actually exist in the world even though we can't see them all the time. In those moments, people are lining up to fill that gap. The problem is that they want to fill it, not with truth, but with self-serving falsehoods disguised as helpful information or advice.

Jesus Christ, the Son of God and our loving brother is himself the Truth! Although it was many years ago that he said, "Do not be afraid any longer, little flock," his guidance wasn't based just on wishful thinking but on his plan never to abandon or forsake his "flock," you and me. Instead, he faithfully accompanies us here on Earth, enabling us to be free and bold despite thieves and violent people, despite ill health and aging, despite confusion and turmoil.

We can't see into our future with our human eyes. Yet the vision Jesus Christ gives us consoles us and allows us to hope, based on the faith he bestows on us to share. Scripture puts it this way, "Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen."

With this same faith and hope, the ancient Abraham walked away from the city and the life he knew, not because he knew what awaited, but because he trusted that whatever God put out there would be so good that everything he left behind would pale in comparison. When we stop and think of our grandparents or of heroes in our own lives, their motivation usually included putting their trust in the God who promises never to abandon us.

Saint Kateri Parish embarked on this present venture six years ago, having studied and planned, but none of us could know how this would play itself out in the years to follow. We're not done yet, but I think God has begun something powerfully good. Sit back and take account of all that God is doing. May it strengthen our faith in this unfaltering God.

In these uncertain times, God doesn't change. God's plan is for the good of all. Let us trust, in small and large ways, this loving Creator to guide us to true and lasting peace and security, and not to accept the half-truths that don't come from God.

Blessings!

Fr. Paul F. English, CSB, Pastor

LIVE KATERI ... GIVE OF ONESELF

ISM Communion Ministry Volunteers

Have you considered reaching out to the growing number of people in our local senior facilities? We have heard in recent Gospel readings: Jesus has challenged all of us to find what more we can do for the greater community. He dares us to let go and become servants to all. ISM Communion Ministry is in need of volunteers who have 1 hour a month to assist as a Communion Service minister at any of the eight local facilities. Information, training, support and supplies are available.

Info: Gigi Bondi 544-8880 x2105

Homebound? ...

We want to visit! Saint Kateri trained ministers brighten the day for isolated, homebound people with friendly visits including prayer and Holy Communion, if requested. Call the parish office to arrange for a visitor or info on becoming a trained minister.

Or Hospitalized?

Privacy regulations no longer allow hospitals to notify the parish when parishioners are admitted. We depend on you to let us know. Please call the parish office to arrange for a priest or communion visitor or to be added to the prayer list.
