PASTOR'S REFLECTION

Perfect Love Casts Out All Fear

The final weeks of the liturgical year lead us through visions of the end of time and the days of final judgment to the triumphant feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This weekend, then, since it is so near the end of this Liturgical Year of St. Luke's gospel, we are treated to some of the most frightening descriptions contained in the Word of God: a time when evildoers will find themselves burnt like stubble, leaving them neither root nor branch. Jesus himself warns about the coming days of real calamity to be visited upon his own people: nation rising against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; powerful earthquakes, famines, plagues and awesome sights and mighty signs from the sky.

Jesus, in Luke's gospel, goes on to describe persecution of faithful people in those last times, but then he reassures them that because they will be filled with the Holy Spirit, God Himself will provide the words and the actions they will need to withstand mightily any opposition.

It's not hard to see why people, throughout the millennia, and in our time in particular, can see that these Biblical predictions are indeed happening in our time. One need only check the evening news (or the 24-hour news cycle we're blessed with in 2016) to be aware of things that sound very much like what the prophet Malachi predicted. What's interesting to me is the description that a professor of mine had for biblical prophecy, and its predictions of the future. The prophet can see that in the future, these several things will occur but his viewpoint is like looking through a keyhole, so he cannot tell what will happen in what sequence, how near or how far away the events are, or other vital details. He just knows they will happen. That means that those who wrote all the novels outlining exact timelines and identifying personages are excellent fiction, but that's the extent of it!

What we do know as Catholic Christians is what we say in our Apostles' Creed: He (Christ) will come to judge the living and the dead and of His Kingdom there will be no end. Thanks to the grace of His Sacrifice to free us from our sins, thanks to the wonderful Sacrament of Reconciliation in which we can confess our faults, sins and failures and hear Christ Himself say that we are forgiven and healed; thanks to the prayer we offer for one another, the Eucharist with which Christ gives us His very Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity as food for our journey; thanks to these and many more graces that we receive as the family of our loving God, we do not fear the End, we do not fear judgment, we do not fear God! Instead, we honor Him and our brothers and sisters every time we share God's love, participate in God's plan of salvation for all by being disciples and evangelizers in our families, among our friends and acquaintances, wherever we find ourselves. No need to fear; only be faithful!

Many blessings!

Fr. Paul F. English, CSB, Pastor

Being Christ to the World through Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA)

CMA Keeps the Lights On!

We present our final basket of faith this week. Representing 30% of our gifts, it's the largest one! It's the one that pays the bills to keep the lights on, the roof repaired and the grass mowed. Like your family's mortgage or rent payment, it funds facilities and insurance. While no one particularly enjoys paying these types of bills for their own households, we are grateful for a roof over our heads and for the security that insurance provides. Like a household, the diocese too has to cover the costs of its basic needs. Our diocese is not a virtual organization; it is a real place that welcomes people to experience the sacraments, engage in educational events and gather to share ideas. It's a workplace made up of buildings that require upkeep and maintenance. Through CMA, we help to provide a home for all of the initiatives we have been learning about these past few weeks – the initiatives that keep Christ's light shining throughout our diocese – faith formation, vocations, services for those in need and so much more.

Thanks to your gifts to CMA, our diocese has a home. Through your generosity, we are being Christ to the world! (CMA Match Fund information is on page 1.) Campaign Chair, Karin Spears

SAINT KATERI SCHOOL

News From the Art Room:

First Graders are Growing in God's Love at Saint Kateri School

By Kaitlin Sigler

Each day at Saint Kateri School, we are reminded of the many ways that God shows us His love. God's beautiful gifts are everywhere, and we often celebrate that concept in Art class with Ms. Roney.

In late September, first grade artists reflected on the beauty of sunflowers. The class agreed that we are blessed to live in a world full of such magnificent, natural gifts! While other plants begin to die as the temperature turns colder, sunflowers stand tall and bright well into autumn. Each first grader created a painting of a sunflower, after being inspired by Vincent Van Gogh's expressive images. Students also studied actual sunflowers in order to capture the essence of their lines and shapes. The hard work resulted in a variety of artwork, taller than the artists themselves!

The finished pieces were on display in the main hallway for all to enjoy, just as if you were walking through a field of tall sunflowers.

PARISH GALLERY - PILGRIMAGE TO THE HOLY DOORS ON SUN OCT 29

A hardy group walked from St. Margaret Mary Church to the Holy Doors of Mercy. Others joined at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Closing of The Holy Doors is SUN Nov 20 with 5:00 PM Mass, Sacred Heart Cathedral. Bishop Salvatore R. Matano presides.

Next time you're out for a walk:

Create your own sacred space by walking in silence to fully experience the fullness of your journey.

LIVE KATERI ... GIVE OF ONESELF

“For it is Mary, Mary, as plain as any name can be ...”

Hi, I'm Pat Schreiner, a proud member of the Legion of Mary. As I was educated in Catholic schools from kindergarten through college, I developed a strong devotion to our Blessed Mother. I was also born in the month of May – the month of Our Lady!

When it was time for me to make my Confirmation, I chose the name Mary, in devotion to our Blessed Mother, but also to honor my godmother, whose name was Mary. My Confirmation sponsor's Confirmation name was Marie, as well.

Membership in the Camp Fire Girls gave me the opportunity to study about our Blessed Mother and then take an oral exam administered by our parish priest. If he felt you were knowledgeable enough, you were awarded the Marion Medal ... I still have that medal 56 years later!

After reading the invitation in the church bulletin to come to a meeting and see what the Legion of Mary was about, I decided to attend a meeting. A little over a year now as a Legionnaire, I am so glad I saw that notice! The meetings have not only deepened my devotion to our Blessed Mother through our weekly recitation of the Holy Rosary, our spiritual readings and discussion regarding events affecting the Roman Catholic Church, it has also given me the opportunity to develop new friendships.

Really think about it and come to a meeting to see if the Legion is your cup of tea!
