Let's go on a Pilgrimage!

SAT Oct 29 9:30 AM
Begins in front of SMM Church

During the Jubilee of Mercy, Pope Francis invited Catholics to make a pilgrimage to one of the designated Doors of Mercy throughout the world. In our diocese, the Door of Mercy is at Sacred Heart Cathedral. The door will be closed on November 20, so we don't have much time left.

Consider joining us to pilgrimage from St. Margaret Mary Church to the Cathedral. If you aren't able to walk the entire way, consider joining along the way or meeting at the Cathedral to pass through the Door of Mercy and offer prayers.

- ◆ Please contact us if you would like to participate or if you would like more information. Also, if you are willing to help us with some of the logistics, please let us know.

PASTOR'S REFLECTION

Catholics and Our Political Decisions

This weekend, I share small portions of a longer teaching by the United States Catholic Bishops about Faithful Citizenship. I strongly recommend you read the entire document; see the USCCB website (link below).*

The political realities of our nation present us with opportunities and challenges. We are a nation founded on "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," but the right to life itself is not fully protected, especially for unborn children, the terminally ill, and the elderly, the most vulnerable members of the American family. We are called to be peacemakers in a nation at war. We are a country pledged to pursue "liberty and justice for all," but we are too often divided across lines of race, ethnicity, and economic inequality. We are a nation of immigrants, struggling to address the challenges of many new immigrants in our midst. We are a society built on the strength of our families, called to defend marriage and offer moral and economic supports for family life. We are a powerful nation in a violent world, confronting terror and trying to build a safer, more just, more peaceful world. We are an affluent society where too many live in poverty and lack health care and other necessities of life. We are part of a global community charged with being good stewards of the earth's environment, what Pope Francis calls "our common home," which is being threatened.

Some question whether it is appropriate for the Church to play a role in political life. However, the obligation to teach the moral truths that should shape our lives, including our public lives, is central to the mission given to the Church by Jesus Christ.

Building a world of respect for human life and dignity, where justice and peace prevail, requires more than just political commitment. Individuals, families, businesses, community organizations, and governments all have a role to play. Participation in political life in light of fundamental moral principles is an essential duty for every Catholic and all people of good will.

The Church is involved in the political process but is not partisan. She cannot champion any candidate or party. Our cause is the defense of human life and dignity and the protection of the weak and vulnerable. The Church is principled but not ideological. As St. John Paul II wrote in Sollicitudo Rei Socialis, "The Church's main aim is to interpret the complex realities of human existence, determining their conformity with or divergence from the lines of the Gospel teaching."

We are committed [uncompromisingly] to clarity about our moral teaching and to civility, to the practice of the virtues of charity and justice that are at the core of our Tradition, working with others in a variety of ways to advance our moral principles.

In light of these principles and the blessings we share as part of a free and democratic nation, we bishops vigorously repeat our call for a renewed kind of politics: 1.) Focused more on moral principles than on the latest polls, 2.) Focused more on the needs of the weak than on benefits for the strong and 3.) Focused more on the pursuit of the common good than on the demands of narrow interests.

Praying along with you for the Spirit's guidance,

Fr. Paul F. English, CSB, Pastor

Being Christ to the World through Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA)

The Triassi family presented one of the baskets at Mass representing the gifts of our Catholic faith and how we support it through CMA.

In last week's Gospel Jesus encouraged His disciples, "to pray always without becoming weary." Consider how much more we can accomplish when we are persisting together! That's exactly what we do through CMA... our financial sacrifices and prayers are joined together as a parish family and with all of the parishes in the diocese to make a difference in our community.

11% of our gifts will help with faith formation. We will be supporting students in Catholic Schools and in Campus ministry. We will be spreading our Catholic faith through sacramental preparation across the diocese. We will be encouraging our young people to gather by making youth ministry and young adult programs possible. This is the story of CMA... Saint Kateri parish's gifts, combined with gifts from other parishes, and then shared with the youth and young adults throughout our diocese. Together, we are reaching out beyond our parish. Together, we are reaching out to educate our young people and to share Jesus through the sacraments.

We are being Christ to the world – through CMA. (CMA Match Fund information is on page 1.)

Legion of Mary

by Janet Buchholz

I am a member of the Legion of Mary. Why did I join the Legion in fall 2015? Over the past 3 years, I had a small handful of surgeries and was homebound for seven months. A kind lady came to my home every week to bring me the Eucharist and we prayed together. She always brought a SMILE with KINDNESSES ... I was very impressed that this busy woman made time for me. She came to me every week without fail never missing a week. I call that dedication!

My personal conversations with God was something like this –“God, if I could be so blessed to be able to walk again, I, too, would join the Legion to be able to someday help others.” In the past, I was a visiting Eucharistic Minister to others but now I have experienced how a prayerful visit and a smile helped me to recover with the hope that God is with me. I am grateful to God, our Blessed Mother, and my new friend and Legion of Mary member.

I like going to the meetings with a wonderful group of people. I have always had a close connection with the Blessed Mother. I love the Legion of Mary prayers. We get to read several readings and I get to learn more and more about our Catholic faith. I love being a part of Mary's army!
