MISSION STATEMENT

OUR VISION

Friends and neighbors joyfully sharing and living the Gospel and the transforming love of Jesus Christ through our Parish Family.

OUR MISSION

To invite and welcome people of all ages, backgrounds and walks of life to embrace and celebrate our vocations

"To be Christ to the world."

18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God." - Lk 12:20-21

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." He replied to him, "Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?" Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Then he told them a parable. "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, 'What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?' And he said, 'This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, "Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!"' But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God." Luke 12:13-21

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

With the month of August getting underway, lots of repairs continue in the church and school building. I am so appreciative of the help our volunteers are providing! Many of these tasks would not otherwise be possible.

If you happen to attend mass at Christ the King Church, be sure to see the beautiful Marian chapel inside the church. We just added a newly refurbished set of 40 votive candles in the chapel along with the book of intentions. Each individual candle will stay lit for 120 hours/5 days. If you decide to make a candle offering, donations can be placed in the regular Sunday collection or dropped off at the parish office.

May God bless you!
Fr. Gonyo

WELCOME TO OUR PARISH

Legion of Mary

We, in the Legion of Mary, cannot donate large sums of money or great gifts to any organization, but we do bring God's love and mercy to those we serve (both our priests and our neighbors). We are the hands and feet of Mary, who takes what we give and presents it to her Son. This presentation of Mary earns us more graces than we can accumulate on our own.

God created us for a purpose. We were not made for his amusement. Some of us were made to do great things and others small things, but in the end, we are made to love God with all our heart, soul and mind and to love our neighbor as ourselves. We, in the Legion of Mary, try to do just that. We are asked to perform the Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy. There is nothing difficult or overly time-consuming about this task.

At the end of our lives, when we come face to face with our Creator, I want only one thing. That is to hear the voice of God saying, "You have done well, my good and faithful servant." I want the same for all of you.

YOU'RE INVITED!

Alpha is a place to connect with other people who are open to exploring life, faith, and meaning. Each session includes a time to connect with others, hear a short talk on an element of the Christian faith, and then a chance for each person to share their own questions with the group. We'd love to hear your perspective!

We will start the series meeting via Zoom
Wednesday evenings: 7:00 - 8:00 PM

SYNOD

ICE CREAM DISCUSSIONS

In October 2021, the Diocese of Rochester (DOR) joined Pope Francis and the Universal Catholic Church in the diocesan phase of the XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops, on the theme "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission."

The parish got a late start, but we still collected information for a brief period of time from those willing to participate in the on-line survey and from several discussions made at various ministry gatherings.

The DOR reviewed incorporated our input with almost 500 pages of summaries from the synodal gatherings and individual responses. The results indicate several overarching themes. Key points are:

- A lack of clarity regarding the very basic question of Catholic identity, and what it means to be Catholic.
- The tensions and commonalities on the question of Catholic identity woven through the other overarching themes of: polarization, the impact of Covid, the need for evangelization, and challenges in decision-making.

Each topic is detailed in the Diocesan Synthesis as well as the demographics for the DOR which can be found on the DOR Website: <https://www.dor.org/synod/>

I am available to discuss the "DOR Synthesis" and just as important, continue our listening process. How about over ice cream? If you are interested, I will be at I-Square on Saturday July 30th from 6pm to 7pm and I will be there to listen to you. Bring a chair to sit outside. Let's talk. Be There or Be Square, Deacon Lon

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK

*Compassion is a way of life—
an inner posture of how to be with suffering, both our own and others, and a desire to move that attitude into action.*

I am most thankful for my recent Boundless Compassion retreat. This is a four-day transformative process which was developed by Joyce Rupp. It is based on the core content of the book, Boundless Compassion. I stayed for a fifth day so I could complete the training and certification so I am now a Boundless Compassion facilitator that can lead these retreats open to people of all faiths and spiritualities.

The retreat provided me the opportunity to explore the depth of many-layered components of compassion based on the teachings of Christianity and other religious traditions. Presentations include insights from theology, spirituality, sociology, science, ecology, and psychology. In order to integrate these teachings into daily life, the retreat included quiet reflection times and small group dialogue. This four-day retreat was much needed as I continue to work with those in our parish who are suffering from personal loss or stress. It also served as a catalyst for a renewed commitment to be a compassionate presence for myself and for others who experience suffering.

I will be incorporating what I have learned from the Boundless Compassion in a retreat for the deacons of the diocese in November, a retreat for staff at another parish, and have been invited to work with the Mercy Spirituality Center in Rochester. I would also like to give Saint Kateri a retreat or two to small groups at our parish this fall.

Peace and Blessings, Deacon Lon
